

High School Junior Calendar

August

- *Begin junior year
- *Use family vacation to visit campuses of colleges that are of interest to you.
- *Check out the guidance blog on the web.
- *Check the www for college options.
- *Study for your PSAT.

September

- *Check with counselor about the PSAT/NMSQT.
- *Check out the guidance blog on the web.
- *Make sure your HS curriculum meets college standards.
- *Get involved in leadership activities!

October

- *Take PSAT, Oct. 13th.
- *With parents, attend area college fairs.
- *Schedule college visits.
- *Begin to collect information about various colleges.
- *Check out the Elyria guidance blog for current information.

November

- *Explore career opportunities - consult your HS counselor.
- *Check out junior days at colleges.
- *Check out the guidance blog on the web.
- *Prep for ACT or SAT's with on-line tests.

December

- *Schedule a conference with HS counselor to discuss future goals.
- *Talk with HS alumni who have attended your top college choices.
- *Check the www for college information.
- *Prep for ACT/SAT's.

January

- *Preview remaining semesters.
- *Continue prepping for ACT or SAT assessment exams.
- *Registration for Feb. ACT is due in early January.
- *Enroll in college prep courses; clarify goals for college attendance.

February

- *Utilize on-line college search programs.
- *Stay involved in leadership activities at school, church or community!
- *Register for ACT or SAT tests. Make note of registration dates and late fees!
- *Check guidance blog!

March

- *Contact local colleges / universities about taking a summer class.
- *Visit campuses of schools where you have an interest.
- *Check the guidance blog and sites for scholarship options: www.finaid.org & www.fastweb.com.

April

- *Attend area college fairs that target HS juniors.
- *Preview senior year courses.
- *Check to see if college tour groups will be in your area.
- *Keep an eye on the guidance blogsite!
- *Take ACT/SAT's!

May

- *Check out various scholarship options that summer work or volunteer service would help in obtaining.
- *Make sure you have at least one ACT/SAT under your belt by the end of June.
- *Get summer job to save money for college.

School, yay!

